August Review

On 18 August we were delighted to receive a presentation from fellow Rotarian David Fawcett, of Fareham Meon Club, about Abby's Heroes. This is a local charity which aims to provide practical support to the families of children admitted to the Piam Brown and TYA Wards of Southampton General Hospital. More information can be found on their website at <https://abbysheroes.org/about/our-mission/>. It was also fantastic to meet volunteer Richard who is a great example of the valuable contribution that volunteers make in our community.
